

CLASH MARKS HUGHESETTES' ARRIVAL
L. A. Women Rain Cheers, Jeers, Blossoms On Guests

O. P. Boosters Reprove
 Feminine Wilson Followers
 For Seeming Rudeness

Forty minutes late, the Women's Hughes campaign train bearing a score of women who have boosted for Hughes, Fairbanks and woman suffrage across the continent, rolled into Arcade station today to be greeted by a welcome that broke all records for enthusiasm and that was marked by a near riot when supporters of Woodrow Wilson cried aloud in derision of their favorite candidate. The voices of the disturbers were drowned occasionally by the opposition of the big gathering of women and men who were at the station to greet the special train. At a time it looked as if there might be physical encounters when women, bearing placards on which were printed phrases lauding Wilson, poked their literature in the faces of the Hughesettes.

Hat Starts Scrimmage
 The group almost came to blows when a member of the Hughes reception committee almost lost her hat. The hat had struck the headgear of a woman who tipped it at a rakish angle. The scuffle was prevented by the Wilson booster responsible for the accident made an apology.

Above—Group of Hughes Boosters, Passengers on Hughesette Special Upon Their Arrival at Arcade Station. Below—Miss Elizabeth Freeman of New York, One of the Silver-Tongued Recruits.

were showered on the visitors when they left their cars.

Delay in Program
 Little time was taken up in the escort of the visitors to their quarters.

women's organizations representing Gardena, Glendale, Hollywood, Long Beach, Monrovia, Orange county, Pasadena, San Bernardino and Los Angeles Harbor and other cities and

(Continued from Green Page 1.)
 ing at the Hotel Alexandria starting late, but speeches were less numerous than promised on the program and those that were made were down so that everything was ready for the afternoon meeting at Trinity Auditorium.
 Lieut.-Gov. W. D. Stephens was chosen as toastmaster for one of the tables at the Alexandria luncheon and Stoddard Jess at the other.
 The honored guests at these tables include Miss Frances A. Kellor, chairman of the woman's committee of the National Hughes alliance; Miss Mary Antin, Mrs. Maude Howe Elliott, Mrs. Stephens Walker, Mrs. Raymond Robins, Mrs. Noble Prentiss, Katherine Bement Davis, Mrs. William Demorest, Rheta Childe Doan, Miss Annie S. Peck, Mrs. Edith Elliott Smith, Mrs. Frank Mebane, Mrs. A. S. Burke, Miss Elizabeth Freeman, Mrs. Henry Moskowitz, Mrs. Alexander Kohut, Miss Rheta Kissel and Miss Anne Rhodes, national organizer Hughes alliance.

Bay City Women to Be Here
 Others at the speakers' tables will include the San Francisco delegation of women who have accompanied the eastern crusaders here: Mrs. Abby Krebs of the California Women's Republican National committee; Miss Alicia Mosgrove, Miss Julia George, Miss Marguerite Ogden, Mrs. W. J. Crocker, Mrs. Adolphus Graupner, Mrs. Gerberding.

The Los Angeles women chosen to join the campaign train: Mrs. Seward Simons, Katherine P. Edson, H. A. Cable and O. Shepard Barnum also had seats reserved for them at these tables, with the following:

Frank P. Doherty, chairman of the Republican county central committee; Russ Avery, president of the Hughes Alliance of California; Mrs. R. W. Richardson, president of the Women's Republican League; J. C. McFarlane, president of the College March League;

Mrs. W. J. Booth, Dr. Lou H. Clarke, J. P. Baumgartner, A. Naftzger and Joseph Scott, Republican electors; Mayor Woodman the members of the executive committee in charge of arrangements: Mrs. Frank A. Gibson, O. P. C. J. F. Sartori, J. Powers Flint, H. Kerckhoff, D. G. Stephens, Wheeler Gray, Miss Helen Wisler, Mrs. Brainerd, George H. Clark, Cornelia Cole, E. E. Leighton, Charles Dick, O. C. Bryant and E. D. Robinson.
 At the luncheon the speakers named on the program were Maude Howe Elliott, daughter of late Mrs. Julia Ward Howe; William Curtis Demorest, the New York suffragist, who has become famous for her active interest in industrial conditions affecting women and children. Mrs. Frank Mebane, the eloquent Southern woman who is making such a valiant fight for Hughes in the Southern states is a probable speaker.

snubbed their opponents. Several were heard to remonstrate by declaring, "We wouldn't do that to you," and "For shame!"
 It was estimated that almost 2000 persons greeted the special train. Hundreds of the women in the gathering carried armloads of flowers, chiefly chrysanthemums and these ones to a parade was as follows:

 State Republican committee, Mrs. H. E. ...