3,000 STUDENTS MOB "HIKERS"

2/17

MRS. JOHN BOLDT AND MISS E. FREEMAN.

Mrs. Boldt and Miss Freeman, carrying guns, present a real military aspect to the march in the cause of suffrage, but the warlike weapons failed utterly to frighten off 3,000 University of Pennsylvania students who were only persuaded to leave off their good-natured mobbing of the suffrage army to-day by the batons of 500 Philadelphia policemen.
